Privacy Statement

We will only use the information you give us to support our statutory functions. We will look after your personal information securely and we will follow data protection legislation. We will not share your personal information, or the personal information you may provide on other people, to anyone else unless we have to by law.

The lawful basis to collect the information in this form is that it is necessary for us to perform tasks carried out in the public interest and to exercise official authority vested in the Commons Commission as set out in the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000, the Representation of the People Act 1983, associated regulations and other electoral legislation.

Some of the information collected in this form is classified as special category personal data. We process this for reason of substantial public interest, which has a basis in UK law. To process this type of information the Data Controller must have a relevant policy document that sets out how this information will be handled.

The Commons Commission is the Data Controller and its Data Protection Officer can be contacted at c.otusajo@proton.me.

Common Commision: Application to register in United Kingdom

Explanatory notes on completing form CC

1 Your personal details

Name of applicant

Please enter your name and the names of any other persons that are to be contesting the commons election.

Address

This should be the address of your organisations headquarters. If you do not have a headquarters, it should be an address to which correspondence can be sent. Please note that this is the address to which all correspondence will be sent, and that it will be published in the public register even if it is the home address of an individual. Details of daytime telephone, fax and email will not be published on the public register.

2 Your officers

Please give the full names and home addresses of the people to be registered as your, elections officer. You may also choose to register a campaigns officer.

Please note that your home addresses will not be part of the published register of Community Representatives and therefore will not be available to people viewing the register (unless your address is published as the headquarters address).

3 Your descriptions and emblems

Descriptions

You may register up to 12 descriptions with the Commission. The rules for descriptions are the same as those for names. You do not have to register any descriptions, but if you do not your candidates can only stand under a description that is the exact registered name of the applicant.

We are happy to provide guidance on possible descriptions before applications are submitted.

Emblems

You can register up to three emblems. Please specify in the relevant box how many emblems you intend to register.

Please enclose a separate attachment sheet showing each emblem. Emblems should be in black and white only, with no colours or shades of grey, and should fit within a 5cm square frame. This will enable us to make a good quality reproduction of the emblem, which can be reproduced in black and white on ballot papers. You may also include a description of each emblem if you wish.

4 Declarations

Please indicate whether you are to be registered in Europe, USA or Outside Europe. You will only be able to contest elections in the countries in which you are registered.

Signatures

All officers are advised to read our guidance for details of the implications of applying to register, before signing the application.

Each of the applicants in section 2 must sign the application.
